

VISA RULES

The following is the rules that may apply to foreign people wishing to travel Iran for visiting Tehran Art:

- Residents of Occupied Palestinian territories (Israel) are not permitted to enter Iran's soil in any way. Also, Entry of people who previously travelled to Israel (and have Israel visa or stamps on their passport), regardless of their country of citizenship, is prohibited as well.
- Citizens of the following countries can stay in Iran for 90 days without visa: Syria, Bolivia and Egypt.
- Citizens of the following countries can stay in Iran for 45 days without visa: Georgia, Lebanon and Azerbaijan.
- Citizens of the countries mentioned above, can have their visa extended by visiting any of Iranian embassies, consulates or bureau of foreign citizens inside or outside of Iran.
- Citizens of the following countries can apply for travel visa "only" through Iranian embassies and consulates: USA, England, Canada, Columbia, Jordan, Somalia, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, India and Bangladesh. The citizen of these countries cannot apply visa through Tehran's international airports.
- Citizens of USA, England and Canada can "only" receive travel visa if they are travelling to Iran using travelling agencies that are verified by Iranian government. The mentioned citizens must submit their written travel plan to Iranian embassies or consulates as a part of their supporting documents. They must always be accompanied by an accredited tour guide inside the Iranian soil.
- Citizens of the following countries can apply for a 30 day travel visa upon arriving at one of the Iranian international airports:
Azerbaijan, Albania, Germany, Austria, Armenia, Uzbekistan, Spain, Australia, Slovenia, Slovakia, UAE, SIndonesia, Ukraine, Italia, Ireland, Bahrain, Brazil, Brunei, Belarus, Belgium, Bulgaria, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Portugal, Peru, Tajikistan, Thailand, Turkmenistan, china, Denmark, Russia, Romania, Japan, Singapore, Sweden, Switzerland, Syria, Oman, France, Palestine, Cyprus, Kirgizstan, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Croatia, South Korea, Colombia, Kuwait, Lebanon, Luxemburg, Poland, Malaysia, Hungary, Mongolia, Mexico, Norway, New Zealand, Venezuela, Vietnam, Netherlands, Yugoslavia and Greece.
- Iranian International Airports are located at the following Iranian cities: Tehran, Shiraz, Tabriz and Mashhad.